

For more information contact:
Amy Bauman
262.522.8181
amy@platypus-ad.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“The Mature Worker Committee of Greater Milwaukee names award George Webb Loyalty Award”

The Mature Worker Committee of Greater Milwaukee (MWCGM), a network of advocates for older workers, has named the Loyalty Award after George Webb Restaurants. The award will be given out at a special recognition event held to honor outstanding mature workers and older worker friendly employers. The event will be held on Thursday, September 22, 2005 at the Italian Community Center.

The George Webb Loyalty award will be given to a nominee that has been with their company the longest. This is one of seven awards that the Committee gives out.

“We really wanted to connect the award to the company,” says Theresa Bellone, Chair of MWCGM. “George Webb has been a long standing tradition in the community so we felt there was a real correlation.”

“We are very proud to be part of this special event and to be associated with a good cause,” said Dave Stamm, President of George Webb Corporation. “We are very excited to attend the event and to personally hand out the new George Webb Loyalty Award.”

George Webb is a staple in Milwaukee culture dating back to 1948. Their 40 locations all have a wide range of 24-hour menu items from omelets to chili and hamburgers to salads, with breakfast available at any time.

If you would like to nominate an older worker or would like additional information, please contact Pat Delmenhorst at Interfaith Older Adult Programs at (414) 291-7500 or pdelmenhorst@interfaithmilw.org. The deadline for nominations is August 29th.

###